GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH
St. Francisville, Louisiana

The original church was built in 1828, making it the second oldest church in Louisiana. It was destroyed and rebuilt in 1858. During the civil war, under a flag of truce, the Masonic Lodge of St. Francisville, buried a Yankee officer in the church cemetery. His grave may still be seen.

Color photo by Hubert A. Lowman

address

PUB. BY GRANT L. ROBERTSON, METAIRIE, LOUISIANA 70001

MIRRO-KROME ® CARD BY H. S. CROCKER CO., INC., SAN FRANCISCO 94103

GLR-518